

Chongqing Telecom visited CAHK 23 Nov 2007

A sixteen-member delegation from Chongqing Telecom paid a visit to Communications Association of Hong Kong. Mr. Tony Hau, the Honorary Advisor, received the delegation and introduced the activities and structure of CAHK as well as the history and development of telecommunication industry for Hong Kong.

The members showed interest in the open policy of the Hong Kong telecommunication market as well as the operation and management of the telecommunication carriers and operators who were now facing keen competition in the local market. Mr. Hau expressed that there were many potential opportunities towards the convergence of telecommunication with IT and broadcasting. The market is competitive, but the industrial players would have more chance to ally each other for further development of new products. The development will be beneficial to the Hong Kong society.

The visit provided a good chance for information sharing and idea exchange between the two areas and friendly relationship were established for the two organizations.
