Business Activities

Analysys Mason is a global specialist advisor in the Telecom Media and Technology (TMT) space. We work with service providers, regulators and financial institutions on a wide range of strategic topics including mergers and acquisitions, digital services such as OTT content and Internet-of-Things (IoT) initiatives, spectrum strategy and auction support, network / commercial cost optimization, and regulatory advisory.

With 12 offices across Asia Pacific, Europe, Middle East and India, we have been supporting our clients for the last 30 years. At the core of Analysys Mason's offer are two key services: consultancy and research. Our services are backed up by our global pool of subject-matter experts, who work consistently at the forefront of the industry, delivering knowledge, insights and tangible business results to our clients.
